

Publicity Consent Agreement

Statement of Purpose

Bankstown West Public School is proud of our students and their achievements and promotes the school and its programs through publicity. We also use images and material to educate staff and students and promote public education.

Photographs and videos are taken of individual students and classes, as well as groups involved in a range of activities such as sport, festivals, public speaking etc.

Some activities may entail your child's photograph, name or samples of work being featured in the school newsletter, local newspapers, television or video appearances, educational magazines or related Internet sites including the school's website.

Publicity guidelines

Bankstown West Public School:

- will use images of students or their work only for the purpose of educating students or staff or promoting the school or public education
- will treat all photographs or personal details in accordance with the Department of Education and Communities' Privacy Code of Practice
- will respect your child's privacy and will not make personal information available to any other organisation.

Parents or caregivers:

- will advise the school if they should decide to withdraw this consent
