WEEK 3

MONDAY 18TH OCTOBER - FRIDAY 22TH
OCTOBER

Geraldine Georgina Jones loved making models — big ones and small ones. Her room was filled with ships, dinosaurs, birds, trains and tiny animals. Geraldine Georgina Jones took great care when making her models. She carefully glued the pieces together and painted them, using fine brushes and tiny pots of paint. But just as she finished painting Falcon on the biggest model plane she had ever made, disaster struck!

A sudden gust of wind swooped through her window. It lifted up the plane and sent it gliding around the room. The plane bumped against her T-Rex, tipping it off the shelf. As the dinosaur crashed to the floor, it hit the side of the tall ship sending it sliding off the table. Both ended in splinters on the floor. Geraldine Georgina Jones gaped at the mess.

BUT the wind had not finished its little game. It gathered up her tiny animals and sent them spinning around the room. Geraldine Georgina Jones rushed to the window and slammed it shut. Without the wind to hold them up, the animals fell to the floor. The tiny animals broke into even tinier pieces.

Geraldine Georgina Jones sat on the floor amongst all the broken bits and pieces. The plane glided gently down and landed beside her. Geraldine Georgina Jones took one look at it and burst into tears.

Read the text and shade a bubble or write an answer to each question.
